

PATRICK CARTER

ACROFLIGHTS.COM

Patrick is test pilot for a major aircraft manufacturer. Patrick soloed when he was 16, got his private license when he was 17 and his first job flying jets at 18. He has flown over 4000 hours and 500 hours of aerobatic flight. He was one of the first instructors in the US endorsed by the International Aerobatic Club as a Master Aerobatic Instructor. Patrick is also an A&P Mechanic and maintains his Pitts S2B after completely rebuilding it from the ground up in 2006. For more information about Patrick click this link www.acroflights.com